REGISTER OF THE SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

A RECORD OF DESCENT FROM
PASSENGERS ON THE GOOD SHIP "MAYFLOWER", A. D. 1620
WITH AN APPENDIX

VOLUME I

FOREWORD

The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of California was organized January 11, 1908. In the following pages, it presents the pedigrees of the first one hundred members admitted, together with their supplemental lines. The first thirty-three names are those of the charter members. If this volume meets with a cordial reception, the second and third volumes will be compiled as soon as practicable, each containing the pedigrees of one hundred additional members.

The opening of the Willamette Valley to settlement, and the discovery of gold in California in 1849, aroused the adventurous spirit of the descendants of the Pilgrims; and they formed an important element in the first emigrant trains across the plains, and the passenger lists of the ships and steamers which sailed for San Francisco Bay. The early settlement of new territory is often shrouded in mystery, for the demands upon pioneers leave no leisure for the making of records. Hence, this Society has endeavored to preserve in this volume some account of those of the old stock who settled the newer States—whence they came, how and when.

The Appendix contains copies of records not previously printed; and it is hoped that the second volume will comprise a still larger proportion of such material. The Index includes all the names in the pedigrees and the Appendix, constituting a finding list of Mayflower ancestry which is unusually comprehensive.

Such a publication as this cannot be in general demand; but it is hoped that the support given it may justify the Society in authorizing additional research, to the end that records still existing may be traced and printed before they shall be lost irrevocably.

Certificate of Calvin Jabez[5] Mills, Sidney, New York

The following affidavit was filed in support of the application of Charles Mills[5] Gayley (Sarah Sophia[8] Mills, Sophia Roxanna[7] Rogers, Samuel[6], Jabez[5], Nathaniel[4], John[3], Joseph[2], Thomas[1]), Massachusetts No. 1004, California No. 14:

Delaware County } SS
State of New York }

Calvin Jabez Mills, of the town and vilage of Sidney, N. Y. being duly sworn, says:

I am the only surviving son of Calvin Mills, late of Guilford, N. Y. (son of Samuel Mills and Lucy Coy Mills) who was born at Norfolk, Conn. july 17th, 1793, and died at Alden, N. Y., March 17, 1850 and of his wife Sophia Roxanna Rogers, who was born at Granville, Mass. Mar. 27, 1791 & died in Buffalo, N. Y. March 9, 1852 I was born at Guilford, N. Y. Oct. 5, 1824 My mother, Sophia Roxanna (Rogers) Mills, was the daughter of Samuel Rogers, who was born January 30, 1764, at North Bolton, Conn. & died in the town of Unadilla, N. Y., a mile north of this village, on the twelfth day of March, 1829 He married at East Windsor,

Conn., Nov. 24, 1785 Sarah Skinner, who was born Dec. 7, 1766, and died at the home of my mother, in Alden, N. Y., Oct. 2, 1850

My knowledge of these matters is derived thus: Born and reared till my 18th year some seven miles from the home of my grandparents, Samuel and Sarah (Skinner) Rogers, I remember grandfather's death in 1829 Thereafter grandmother made her home alternately with my mother, in Guilford, and my uncle Charles Skinner Rogers, in Sidney. From 1841 to 1851 my home was that of my uncle, Henry W. Rogers, in Buffalo, N. Y. His family bible, now owned by his nephew, Henry W. Rogers of Chicago, Ill., had a full family record, going back to Thomas Rogers, 18th signer of the Mayflower Contract, who died in the 1st winter, at Plymouth, Mass. In 1845, my father's family removed to Alden, N. Y., 20 miles east of Buffalo, and grandmother's home was thereafter with mother, while she made long visits in the home of my uncle in Buffalo which was also my home. She often recited in my hearing events in the family history in Connecticut, Massachusetts and New York States. She said she and her husband Samuel Rogers "were reckoned the handsomest couple who came into Wapping (now East Windsor) meeting house."

I further certify that my sister, Sarah Sophia Mills, was born in Guilford, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1837; that she married Aug. 20, 1856 in Buffalo, N. Y., Rev. Samuel Rankin Gayley, born Oct. 18, 1826 and that Charles Mills Gayley, Professor of English, University of California, Berkeley, California, is their son.

1. I also testify that my record of my father's family notes these facts: Samuel John Mills, born Jan'y 27, 1816, married Feb. 15, 1839 Emily Sexton. Their daughter Helen Sophia, born Guilford, Nov. 5, 1840, died single, at Sidney, Feb. 20, 1907 Samuel died in Buffalo, Sep. 24, 1853—his wife Emily died in Unadilla, N. Y., Jan'y 24, 1896

Isaac Richardson Wilbur, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I was born in New Baltimore, Green County, New York, on October 28th, 1835, and am the son of Allen Russell Wilbur, who was born at Chenango County, New York, on October 4, 1806 and died at Mattoon, Illinois, on July 11, 1881, and of his wife, Sophia[8] Etheridge, who was born in Sheldon, Vermont, about 1809, and died in Bristol, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, in 1839, about October. The said Sophia Etheridge was married at New Baltimore, about 1827 or 1828, and was the daughter of Nathaniel Etheridge, who was born at Boston about 1773, and died at Sackett's Harbor, in the war of 1812, and of Content Leeds Champlin, who was born at Quechee, Vermont, on Sept. 2, 1790 and died at Kenosha, Wisconsin, about 1871, married about 1805

I was married at Stockton, California, on August 23, 1865, to Louise Visher, who was born at Fulton, New York, on March 18, 1847, and died at San Francisco on March 5, 1903 Our children were the following:

1. Caroline Luana[10] Wilbur, born June 19, 1866, near Stockton, married November 14, 1888, to John Strait Wilbur, the adopted son of William Wilbur, of Hamilton, Illinois.

3. Elizabeth Agnes[10] Wilbur, born at Stockton, on December 3, 1872, unmarried.

My knowledge of these facts, as to my ancestors, was derived from personal acquaintance with my grandmother, Content Leeds (Champlin) Etheridge, who removed from Vermont to Wisconsin about 1849; and from 1855 to 1860 I saw much of her, and corresponded with her up to the time of her death, after I came to California, where I arrived on the 28th day of April, 1860

The children of Nathaniel and Content Leeds[7] (Champlin) Etheridge were the following:

1. Catherine[8] Etheridge, born at Sheldon, Vermont, about 1806, and married Hammond Marsh, making their home in New Baltimore, New York, where they had children (1) William[9] Marsh, born about 1828; (2) Sophia[9] Marsh, born in 1832, married George Bosworth; (3) Etta[9] Marsh, born in 1835, married Douglas Fowler; and Mary[9] Marsh, born in 1839
2. Eliza[8] Etheridge, born about 1807, married in my father's house to Levi Grant, of New Baltimore, New York, and had: (1) Julia[9] Grant, born in April, 1836, married —— Durkee, but had no children; (2) Emory[9] Grant, born about 1842, married —— Davis, and has two children, Frances[10] Etheridge Grant, who married —— Simmons, of Kenosha, Wisconsin; and Ethel[10] Grant, married —— Quarles.
3. Sophia[8] Etheridge, born in 1809, married Allen Russell Wilbur, and had: (1) Frances[9] Wilbur, born January, 1830, married, about 1855, to William Kemp, of Chicago, and had five children: Ida[10] Kemp, married —— Emery; Henry Etheridge[10] Kemp; Laura[10] Kemp, married William Hamman; Julia[10] Kemp, married —— Walter; and Grace[10] Kemp, married E. Leonard.
4. William[8] Etheridge, died unmarried, at about the age of nineteen or twenty.

Mary[7] Champlin, daughter of Capt. William[6] and Content (Brown) Champlin, born about 1797, and died about 1895, in Bristol, Wisconsin, married Hastings Castle, and had:

1. William[8] Castle, who died in 1907, in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin, married —— Corcoran, and had two children.
2. Mary[8] Castle, who married —— Gibbs, a widower, but had no children of her own.
3. George[8] Castle, who married Harriet Oliver, in Galena, Wisconsin, and had nine children.
4. Harriet[8] Castle, who never married.

5. Elizabeth[8] Castle, married Nathaniel Burgess, for her second husband. She married, first, —— Huntoon, and had one son, George[9] Huntoon. By her second marriage, she had several children, including Mary Bell[9] Burgess, now living in Stockton, California, who married her cousin, Oliver D. Castle.
6. Christopher Champlin[8] Castle, married first, ——— Haerlson, and had two daughters; and married, second, —— Bush, and had two sons and four daughters.
7. James Udell[8] Castle, married Emma Agnes Watkins, but had no children.
8. Erastus[8] Castle, married and had several children, including William[9] Castle, residing near Visalia, California.

My great-aunt, Mary[7] (Champlin) Castle, at the age of 93, worked, without glasses, a beautiful and elaborate piece of needlework, now in the possession of James Udell Castle, her son, in Stockton, California.

My father, Allen Russell Wilbur, settled in Wisconsin, in 1837, and raised one of the first crops of grain in Kenosha County, Wisconsin. He removed to Mattoon, Illinois, less than a year before his death, making his home there with my sister, Frances Kemp.

Subscribed and sworn to this fourth day of May, A. D. 1908

PAUL HARTE BOSWORTH.

San Francisco, October 7, 1912

Thomas[4] Cushman, of Lebanon, Connecticut

One of the first results of the careful work done in connection with the verification of lines submitted by applicants for membership in the Society of Mayflower Descendants (more particularly by the Massachusetts Society) has been the discovery of the names of additional children, when wills and other records have been compared with printed lists of the different families. Such omissions have occurred in earlier, as well as later generations. Many hundred cards have been sent out by this Society to persons residing in Pacific Coast States, whose names implied that they might be descended from Mayflower passengers; and one of these was responded to by Mr. James Thomas Cushman, of Seattle, Washington, who submitted a line of descent which could not be made to agree with the material printed in the Cushman Genealogy (1855). To his intelligent interest and perseverance must be attributed the discovery of an hitherto unknown grandson of John Howland, and great-grandson of Isaac Allerton. Under date of 15 September, 1916, Mr. Cushman wrote: "I am sure that the California Society may justly claim the credit of starting the search which ended successfully in the discovery of another son of Thomas and Ruth (Howland) Cushman. Until I received the card you sent me, I had never thought of running this matter down; but when once started, I determined to persevere until I should find that success was impossible. The final link was discovered through the efforts of a distant kinsman of mine, Mr. Theodore P. Adams, of Plymouth, Massachusetts, who kindly examined the land records." Mr. Cushman is a member of the Washington Society of Mayflower Descendants, and has, very kindly, furnished the California Society with copies of some of the records which have established his descent.

According to the Cushman Genealogy (page 100), Thomas[3] Cushman (Mary[2] Allerton, Isaac[1]) was "born 16 Sept., 1637, married 1st, Ruth Howland, daughter of John Howland, one of the old comers, 17 Nov., 1664 She was living when her father's Will was made, 29 May, 1672, and as he was married the second time in 1679, his first wife must have died between those dates. He married, 2nd, Abigail Fuller of Rehoboth, 16 Oct., 1679 He and his 2nd wife were members of the Church at Plympton." On pages 124 and 125, the Genealogy states that Thomas[3] Cushman had one son, Robert[4] Cushman, by his first wife, born 4 Oct., 1664; and, by his second wife, Job[4] Cushman, born about 1680, Bartholomew[4] Cushman, born 1684, Samuel[4] Cushman, born 16 July, 1687, and Benjamin[4] Cushman, born 1691 As yet, we have learned of no claim that Thomas[3] Cushman had daughters; but, since his first wife lived for at least eight years after their marriage, it is not unlikely that the names of other children will be found in the records.

Thomas and Mary[2] (Allerton) Cushman had four sons, Thomas[3], Isaac[3], Elkanah[3] and Eleazer[3], all of whom were married; but, according to the Cushman Genealogy, none of these had a son Thomas Hence, as Elder Thomas Cushman died at Plymouth, 11 December, 1691, the following deed must have been executed by his son, Thomas[3] Cushman (Plymouth County Registry of Deeds, Book 4, page 167):

"To all Christian People, to whom these Presents shall come, Thomas Cushman of the Towne of Plimouth, in the County of Plymouth in New England, sendeth Greeting, &c.

As early as 1703, Thomas Cushman, of Duxbury, Mass., became interested in lands at Lebanon, Connecticut, as appears by Lebanon Land Records. In Vol. 1, page 139 (new page 281) is recorded a deed from "Henry Woodward of Lebanon to Thomas Coachman of Duxberry in the County of Plimouth in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England . . . all my whole right of alotment in the township of Lebanon, in that part of the township called Lebanon Village, containing 200 acres, to ly in Common according to the costom of the place . . . the first of April, 1703" The witnesses to this deed were Thomas Thacher and John Strong. Other deeds are of record from "John Smith of Lebanon to Thomas Coushman of Lebanon" for 51 acres, dated 19 July, 1710, and from "Moses Woodworth and David Woodworth, both of Norwich, in the County of New London & Colony of Connecticut in New England . . . to Thomas Coushman of Lebanon" for about 92 acres, dated 20 November, 1724.

On tombstones in the Old Cemetery at Lebanon, Conn., may be seen the following inscriptions:

"Here lies the body of Mr. Thomas Cushman, late husband of Mrs. Sarah Cushman, who died January 9, 1727 aged 57 years

Here lies our honored Father dear
Who was our faithful guide.
Here also lies our Mother dear
Intombed by his side
1728

"Here lies the body of Mrs. Sarah Cushman, late wife of Mr. Thomas Cushman, who died Dec. 25, 1726, aged 52 years

Here lies y^{e} womb with in this tomb
From whence we had our nature
We hope they both are now at rest
In God their great Creator."

This Society has procured a certified copy of the will of Thomas Cushman of Lebanon (Windham Probate Records, Vol. 1, pages 167-170), which is given in full hereunder:
